Which one is best for you?

The website has been designed for ease of access and use. You also have the ability to leave comments on any of the articles and get priviledged contact with the LowCarb Monthly team.

The e-magazine is easily viewable on screen and you have the convenience of being able to use the hyperlinks to go directly to any of the web pages or email addresses in the text. It has also been designed to be printed out too, so you have the best of both worlds.

In addition to that we are giving an extra 3 months on all subscriptions to the e-magazine. For example, if you take a 12 month subscription, you'll actually receive 15 etc.

Each month, we'll send you a short email to let you know it's ready.

You still get the best value by having a longer subscription.

And don't forget, whichever choice you make, you have a 365 day money back guarantee. No quibble, no fuss

Why have we lowered our prices and opened up such a comprehensive web resource as well as the magazine?

Firstly, it gives us immense pleasure to be able to lower our prices. That's because it has always been our intention to offer sincere dieters sound information at a price that virtually anyone could afford.

Our vision for what this magazine can do for you has been brought to the fore by a number of events and understandings. These in turn have had an exciting effect on the way the magazine is going.

And even though our bank manager may say we are being a little premature, we have decided to show our confidence in where this magazine is going by bringing in the new prices sooner rather than later.

We have been able to do this partly because of seeing an increase in readership and partly because we have responded to what you, the reader, have said you wanted so we now offer a simplified subscriptions menu.

You will see that there are no more confusing discounts and no more subscription types (like the printed ones) that very few people take advantage of.

Bringing in simplicity has meant we are making savings and these we have passed on to you.

It really is a win win situation because now many more folk can now afford to take a subscription to what is fast becoming the web's favourite Low Carb Monthly Magazine.

All the Best

Mark
